DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-11 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kaminsky U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2001/0047308.

Referring to claim 1. Kaminsky disclose a discount sale management method of managing a selling price, comprising:

- Counting a sales quantity (Fig. 3, "Qty");
- Setting a discount price as the selling price, the discount price produced by a discount from an original price, while the sales quantity is less than a predetermined quantity (paragraph 0049 and paragraph 0050); and
- Setting the original price as the selling price at the time the sales quantity becomes equal to or greater than the predetermined quantity (paragraph 0050).

Referring to claim 2. Kaminsky further discloses a method further comprising changing the discount price relative to time (paragraph 0050, "Current price 38 will drop a certain percentage over a given period of time.").

Referring to claim 3. Kaminsky further discloses a method comprising lowering the discount price with the passage of time (paragraph 0050, "Current price 38 will drop a certain percentage over a given period of time.").

Referring to claim 4. Kaminsky further discloses a method comprising:

- Setting the discount price to a minimum discount price (paragraph 0044, "The business entity can set either a floor, or minimum price for the product they wish to offer..."); and
- Holding the minimum discount price as the selling price after the selling price reaches the minimum discount price, as long as the sales quantity is less than the predetermined quantity (paragraph 0039).

Referring to claim 5. Kaminsky further discloses a method comprising:

- Providing a schedule of change of the discount price (paragraph 0050); and
- Accepting, from a purchaser, a purchase reservation specifying a desired purchase price, a purchase reservation time of the purchase reservation is set when the selling price reaches the desired purchase price (paragraph 0037 and Fig. 4).

Referring to claim 6. Kaminsky further discloses a method comprising allocating a product to the purchase reservation if the sales quantity is less than the predetermined quantity when the selling price reaches the desired purchase price (paragraph 0049 and paragraph 0050).

Referring to claim 7. Kaminsky further discloses a method comprising canceling the purchase reservation if the sales quantity is equal to or greater than the predetermined quantity when the selling price reaches the desired purchase price (paragraph 0056).

Referring to claims 8-11. Claims 8-11 are rejected under the same rationale as set forth above in claims 1-7.
